Assault with Deadly Weapon (Shooting)

Alameda, CA (June 1, 2010) – On June 1, 2010, approximately 2:03 a.m. the Department received calls of gunshots in the area of Second and Brush Street. When officers arrived they found an adult male Alameda resident with multiple gunshot wounds to his upper torso and head. The victim was conscious and communicative and was transferred to Highland Hospital for treatment where he remains in serious but stable condition.

The suspect is apparently known to the victim and fled in an unknown vehicle. The exact motive is not known at this time. Investigators are following up on active leads and the investigation is continuing.

The case is being investigated by Alameda Police Department Violent Crimes Unit.

***UPDATE*** Alameda, CA (June 23, 2010) On June 21, 2010 at 9:42 p.m., the shooting suspect in this case, Theodore Jerome LeBlanc, was taken into custody by Alameda Police in Emeryville after being located by the San Francisco Police Department, subsequent to an inter-agency flyer sent out by Alameda Police on 6-17-10. A lead on the shooter's identity was made with the assistance of the Oakland Police Department's intelligence unit.
